

Clock Tower Events is a new venue to downtown Denver. Prior to 1950 the Daniels & Fisher Department store was the ‘crown jewel’ of the Denver skyline. Built in 1911 and designed by architect F. G. Sterner, the D & F Tower was the tallest structure west of the Mississippi, at a height of 393 feet. Visitors to the 20th floor used to be able to see 200 miles in any direction. The building is of the Italian Renaissance style and is constructed of brick, stone & terra cotta. In the 1960’s after financial ruin the building was set to be demolished. Due to immense effort from preservationists in the early 1970’s, Denver was able to save the actual clock tower from being destroyed. Now listed on the National Register of Historic Places, it nightly lights up the Denver skyline and remains a defining building for down town.

Now, the top five floors of this beloved structure are available for smaller, private events through Clock Tower Events. Located atop the tower in the heart of Downtown Denver, the recently renovated space features décor that’s elegant & modern, breathtaking panoramic views of the skyline & surrounding mountain ranges from two balconies & offers guests the opportunity to see behind the mysterious clock faces.

Client Testimonials:

"I just wanted to tell you how pleased we were with the Clocktower as our choice for Barbara and Michael's wedding reception. Everything looked beautiful and we got many compliments about the unique site choice. The view was absolutely spectacular and the customer service provided by your staff was superb. I will pass along a photo or two once we review them, and if you would like to use it in your gallery, please feel free. Once again, thank you so much. Best regards" – Anne Herbert

"Thank you both for what turned out to be an extraordinary event! The energy in the Clock Tower was terrific, right from the beginning. The space spreads people out and tucks them into corners so that, even with a crowd of perhaps 110, every interaction feels intimate. People were still thanking me on Saturday, and several said it was the best client reception they had ever attended." – Jeff Zax

"I wanted to let you know that everyone at CFM Company thoroughly enjoyed the Holiday party last week. The venue was great!! We had a lot of people comment that grew up here or have been in Denver for a long time, but they never had a chance to see what was inside the D&F Tower. It was really a great time and a beautiful spot. Thanks again!" – Gene Krist, CFM Company

"We had our reception at the Clocktower downtown and all of our guests said that it was the most beautiful venue for a wedding they had ever seen! Very Cinderella! Holly and Jessie were great to work with & everything else went smoothly! This is such an amazing, unique and historical venue! Absolutely stunning for photos!" – Alex

"We used the clock tower for both our wedding ceremony and our reception. The venue itself is amazing, and requires very little to no decoration. All I did for decor was provide flowers and some framed family photos in lieu of a slideshow. If you have a lot of children, elderly, or any mobility-impaired guests this is not the venue for you. This is an adult venue with lots of stairs, and it's truly not child-friendly at all. This was fine for our event, but just be aware that this is not a place for a bunch of toddlers to run around. The owner, Holly, was extremely gracious and very easy to work with. Her event coordinator Jodi, was very prompt and professional. The event staff members at our wedding were super helpful. I can't say anything negative about the staff or the venue - everything was delightful. What a treat to hold our very special event in this iconic Denver landmark! Thanks to Holly and her staff!!!" – Karen

"The Clock Tower is an amazing space. If you have a wedding for less than 75 people, I would look no further. The drawbacks are the stairs but that does not outweigh all of the positives. The views are spectacular, the furniture and all of the decor is included, and there is nothing else like it in Denver. It is a great price for what you get. Holly responded quickly when I initially inquired and continued that pattern throughout. If you have a good caterer, wedding planner, and florist, you will be in good hands here." – Tracey
